FROM OTTAWA

June 8th, 1903.
The minister of railways replying to a series of questions by Mr. Walter Scott, said that the Canadian Northern had a total of 582,828 acres of land, subsidy unearned and by building to Hudson Bay might earn 6,400,000 acres. In regard to the subsidy of 6,400 acres per mile to the Red Deer Valley Railway and Coal Company for 55 miles of road, which the company has to the end of July, 1903, to earn the question is before the justice department. The areas reserved for railways which have failed to earn their land grants were given as follows:—

	Acres.
Alberta Railway and Coal Company (Lethbridge to Crow's Nest Pass)	384,000
Alberta and Athabasca Railway Company	1,920,000
Brandon and Southwestern Railway Company	108,800
Calgary and Edmonton Railway Company (Marcelle to international boundary)	287,552
Lake Manitoba Railway and Canal Company (Portage La Prairie to Lake Manitoba)	102,000
Great Northern Central Railway Company (Hampden to Battleford)	2,560,000
Lac Seul Railway Company	115,200
Medicine Hat Railway	51,200
Manitoba and Northwestern Railway Company (from Yorkton and Russell north-westward)	1,417,024
Manitoba and Southwestern Railway Company (from 98th mile southward)	76,800

Rocky Mountain Railway and Coal Company	384,000
Wood Mountain and Qu'Appelle Railway Company	1,536,000

A tract of land, part of which is unsurveyed, and which is estimated to contain an area of 222,500 acres, and lying the tract originally set apart by order-in-council for the land subsidy to the Red Deer Valley Railway and Coal Company, is held reserved.

—By an error in Saturday's daily an advertisement of hardware for sale by John Sommerville and Son appeared in J. H. Morris & Co.'s space and over their firm name. The mistake is very misleading in directing one to make a purchase, but our readers will kindly accept this apology and explanation and go to John Sommerville and Son for the hardware advertised as J. H. Morris and company's. The latter will much prefer to show dry goods and groceries.

A DISASTROUS FIRE

About three o'clock this morning Taylor's livery and feed stable, opposite the Grand View Hotel, burned to the ground for the third time in four years. Constable Dean, J. H. Pickering and J. W. Huff noticed the fire, and at the same time the alarm was given by a couple of young men who room over Mr. Alex. May's real estate office, east of the stable. The firemen quickly responded. The chemical fire engine kept the flames from the surrounding buildings until a large stream of water was turned on by the engine from the tank opposite Garney and Lessard's store. Fortunately the water mains were charged and two long lines of hose were laid from the hydrant at the Imperial Bank corner, down three large streams of water were pouring on the adjacent lots and the flames which had started to issue from them were speedily quenched. At one time it looked as if the whole corner, including the Club, J. McDonald's residence, Alex. May's real estate office, the office of the Brandon Marble Works and other adjoining buildings would be swept to the ground, but the excellent work of the fire brigade kept the flames under control. The large stable was burned, and with it eight horses, two cows and a calf. A large quantity of hay and oats and several sets of harness were destroyed. Jas. McDonald had a quantity of furniture and tools stored in a shed to the rear of his residence. This building and Mr. Stewart's stable adjoining it, and the office building belonging to the stable were burned. The loss comes heavily on Mr. Tom Griffin, who had the stable rented, and to whom belonged the hay, oats, harness, etc. He carried no insurance. The stock burned belonged mostly to outsiders. The building was insured with St. Geo. Jellicott in the Royal Insurance Company, for $3,650.

Mr. Alex. May's J. I. Case threshing outfit, which he had on exhibition to the rear of his office, narrowly escaped destruction. At the last possible moment the separator and the engine were hauled out by the bystanders. The origin of a fire is always a matter of great discussion. All sorts of supposed causes are given for this one. One thing is certain, that the fire commenced in the hay mow, as when the first person noticed the fire the whole surface of the hay was burning and the flames were just commencing to eat through the roof near the north end. Tom Bellars who slept in the stable, was not aroused until the fire had made great headway. In escaping from the stable he was burned slightly about the hands and face. He can throw no additional light on the cause of the fire. He went to bed about 12.30 o'clock, and then not before looking around to see that everything was right. It was a fortunate thing for the adjoining buildings that the new waterworks system was under test, for the two additional streams of water were largely instrumental in getting the fire under control.

AN OPEN LETTER

To the City Council.
Gentlemen:
As a ratepayer I would suggest that no more sidewalks be constructed as they have been, or as they are being built today. The ground should be leveled before laying, so that the cross pieces, instead of being on small blocks of all sizes and lengths, which after three or four years are in such a state that one is not sure whether he is walking on a sidewalk built on firm land, or walking on a floating bridge. This is not a matter of one year but of eight or ten, although it should not be more than eight years. We have had our old sidewalks for a past experience which we should benefit by.

J. H. PICARD.

HORSE HILLS

Mr. W. J. Hunter of the Reporter, Fort Saskatchewan, passed through here on Monday en route for Edmonton.

Our genial friend MacDougall was in the district on Sunday last, renewing old acquaintances.

Mr. E. Seagert came up from town on Monday to superintend the finishing of seeding operations on his farm.

Chas. G. Jones, agent for the Heinemann & Company piano, placed in the home of Mr. Jeff Lewis, last week a beautiful high grade piano.

Our boys have organized a football club and do some tall kicking at practice every Tuesday and Saturday evenings.

Tenders are being called for forty-two thousand or more bricks for the new school house. Tenders to be in by eight p.m. on Saturday, the 13th instant.

The latest settlers in the district are two gentlemen from Australia, who have recently purchased the old Meador homestead.

The Halfway Hotel has now assumed a very attractive appearance from the fact that the proprietor, Mr. Wm. Ross has recently had a fine balcony erected around it.

By all appearances Edmonton is being well supplied with hay this spring, as large quantities are passing here daily. The farmers, being through seeding, are taking advantage of the good roads and firm price to dispose of their surplus hay.

Mr. G. Webb was in the district on Monday buying hogs and succeeded in securing quite a number in this vicinity. Mr. Webb is loading a car on Monday next for shipment to the Kootenays. The hog business is a profitable one at the present time. Load after load of hogs pass through here almost daily.

Rev. G. W. Sparling preached here last Sunday. There will be no Methodist service here on Sunday, the 14th inst. Mr. Sparling will then preach at the Sturgeon to replace Rev. Thacker, who leaves for Winnipeg to attend a conference. Rev. A. H. Wood, of the Presbyterian service here next Sunday at eleven a.m.

A meeting was held in the Halfway Hotel last week, by a number of farmers of this vicinity. Having bought from McLaughlin Bros. of Columbus, Ohio, the imported Percheron stallion, Lino, 4943, 29531, dapple gray, gold medal horse. The farmers have formed a syndicate for the purpose of breeding and propagating the Percheron horse in this country. At the meeting Mr. J. Kennedy, of Poplar Lake, was elected president, and Mr. E. Seagert, vice-president and secretary-treasurer. The company will be known as the Horse Hills Syndicate.

Now is the time for farmers to insure crops against hail. The many districts to which the hail proved so disastrous last summer are not going to take any more risks; one and all those farmers are insuring this summer. Those who were fortunate enough to escape the hail last year should take no chances this year, but insure at once, and those who should happen to get haled, will find that the amount paid will amply cover the loss in paying the general expenses.

EDMON SETTLEMENT

Notes from the settlement have of late been conspicuous by their absence, however, we are still alive and have been very much so these last few weeks.

The most important piece of news to us all, is that we are to have a post office, and that right early. It will be located, for a time at least, at Mr. Chas. Edgson's, he having consented to look after our mail until such time as we get a store in the settlement.

In spite of the state of the roads, which have been very bad for the past few weeks, much freighting has been done.

Ed. Wilson arrived last Tuesday evening with his stores. He had a very fine span of oxen with him and came through without getting stuck.

Meas. P. and R. Logan came in on Thursday. They brought their mother, who has just come from Ontario, with them.

The weather is superb and everyone is now busily engaged finishing seeding, etc.

Edgson's now have their home to themselves, a thing which they could hardly have said during the past ten or twelve weeks, for they have been indefatigable in their efforts to accommodate and help incoming settlers and land seekers.

REABOYNT

Land seekers are hovering about more or less looking for improved lands. Mr. A. Plante was offered $2,000 for his quarter section this week, at which price he refused to sell.

E. LeBlanc and Joe Lavigne have each an improved quarter section up for sale. The latter intends moving to his farm at Otawakan siding, the former has taken a homestead about six miles east.

Road work has begun. All the approaches on the government bridge over the Clearwater creek are finished. Corduroy work is to be put in three or four sloughs which are too soft for the general traffic.

The feast of St. Jean Baptiste, the 24th of June, is to be celebrated here this year. A large assembly of "Les Canadiens" from Edmonton and St. Albert districts are expected to be present.

Rev. S. Bouchard, in charge of the mission here, has gone to St. Albert to assist, on Wednesday, the third inst., at the requiem mass for the late lamented Bishop Grandin, of St. Albert diocese.

WHITE WEALE LAKE

Our community received a startling shock on Tuesday morning when they heard of the death of B. Woodland. He had been ill only a very few days and the doctor who was visiting the remote at the time, and who was called in to prescribe, regarded the case as not very serious. He leaves a sorrowing widow, three boys and one girl at home, one daughter at Stratheona and a married son in Nepean, Ont.

Mr. Woodland was a fisherman who was making a name for himself. He had gained the esteem of his neighbors and of all, with whom he had business relations. At sunset Wednesday, June third, he was buried by Missionary Leut. and the near neighbors on a beautiful spot he had cleared on his own homestead. His age was fifty-two.

Fortunately for his family he had his life insured in the Canadian Order of Home Circles for $3,000.

200 = LOTS = 200

A portion of the ROWLAND ESTATE, otherwise known as "THE SYNDICATE."

Plans and Prices can be seen at the Office on and after the date mentioned.

This is the closest and best property available, and the choicest in and about Edmonton. The furthest part is from 10 to 15 minutes from the post office. The property is eminently the people's portion: is not controlled by a policy of inertia dictated by "Hebraic Hatred." The surveys conform to existing ones, and the streets will be projected to their legitimate confines. Building Sites on the verge of the hill overlooking the mighty Saskatchewan, the foliage and verdure of whose banks is not exceeded by the fiercest tropics or softest Pacific scenes, abound. Prices will be uniform and moderate, tempered as a corrective of the present indefinite craze.

TERMS.—One third Cash. Balance 6 and 12 months, interest 8 per cent. Agreements $2 each, transfers free.

FIRE LIMITS

Red Deer Echo.

It is high time that Red Deer adopted stringent regulations as to the character of the buildings erected in the central portion of the town. "A clean sweep" would be the brief epitaph if a conflagration struck the place during a favoring breeze; and, notwithstanding this, some of our citizens are still adding to the "woodpile." Steady and substantial improvements, such as are now going on, and, which, in the language of the auctioneer, will soon make Red Deer a populous and prosperous city possessing rare beauty of situation. Balloon frames and wooden shingles under these circumstances are imprudent for the owners and a menace to their neighbors. The splendid solid brick and stone blocks close by should be sufficient to impress these flimsy structures, but, since they are not, the council should promptly pass a fire limit law, and thus put an end to this growing evil.

EDMONTON A SECOND WINNIPEG

Telegram.

E. F. Hutchings has returned from an extended tour through the Edmonton, Calgary, High River, Macleod, Lethbridge, Medicine Hat and Prince Albert districts. He said he was in the ranching country when the unprecedented storm came. The snow and cold weather has not so far as he could learn done much damage to the ranches. It was only the cattle on the cars that suffered and died. Although the storm had caused loss in this way it proved very beneficial to the whole country, and after the snow melted the fields all looked beautiful and green and the grain and hay crops promise to be exceedingly good again this year.

"The advance the country is making must be seen to be appreciated," Mr. Hutchings said. "At points where there were previously only stations and elevators, there are now towns and buildings are going up everywhere."

"The town of Edmonton is growing very rapidly. There must have been fully 500 unoccupied houses, which have just been built, and there were many others going up, Calgary is also building up. I visited the Calgary live stock show and it was the best I have seen."

Mr. Hutchings is erecting factories and warehouses at Calgary and Prince Albert. He is of the opinion that Edmonton is framing to become a town of Winnipeg's proportions.
